

2010 Citizenship Washington Focus

National 4-H Conference Center,

Chevy Chase, MD

June 27 – July 3, 2010

Program Overview

Citizenship Washington Focus is a 4-H leadership program for high school youth. Delegations from across the country attend this six-day program at the National 4-H Youth Conference Center, located just outside Washington, D.C. The program is aimed at enriching young people's lives by broadening their appreciation and respect for themselves and others in the world. Participants attend workshops, committees, field trips and social events, giving them hands-on opportunities to learn and grow. Participants learn and practice skills that will make them better citizens and more successful individuals.

Eligible Participants

CWF is open to all Florida 4-H members 15 to 18 years old, as of Sept. 1, 2009.

Registration

Registration is on a first-come, first-served basis. Florida has 25 openings reserved for the CWF program. The initial deadline is Friday, Jan. 15, 2010. The $150 deposit and registration form are due at this time. If after the deadline space is still available, additional participants will gladly be accepted. To ensure your participation in CWF, register ASAP! This form must be in the State 4-H Events Office by Jan. 15, 2010. Additional registration materials will be mailed after Jan. 15.

Costs

The standard registration package for CWF is $850 per person, plus transportation costs. Delegates and/or counties will be responsible for all costs. A $150 non-refundable deposit must be submitted to the Florida 4-H Events Office with this form by Jan. 15, 2010 made payable to the "Florida 4-H Foundation." The remaining $700 and transportation costs will be due by May 15, 2010. 4-H will provide a charter bus for transportation to and from Washington, D.C., and during the week of CWF. Transportation costs will be determined by the number of participants, and will be announced after the final delegation size is determined. It is estimated to be between $200 and $350 per participant.
